6. RISK FACTORS:

The Portfolio Manager is not responsible for the loss if any, incurred or suffered by the Client. The following are the inherent risks associated in the management of Portfolio:

General Risk Factors applicable to all portfolios:

- i. Securities investments are subject to market risks and there is no assurance or guarantee that the objectives of the Portfolio will be achieved.
- ii. Past performance of the Portfolio Manager or any of its Group Companies do not indicate the future performance of the portfolio.
- iii. Investors are not being offered any guaranteed or assured return/s i.e. either of principal or appreciation on the portfolio.
- iv. Investors may note that Portfolio Manager's investment decisions may not be always profitable, as actual market movements may be at variance with anticipated trends.
- v. The liquidity of the Portfolio's investment is inherently restricted by trading volumes in the securities in which the Portfolio invests.
- vi. The valuation of the Portfolio's investments, may be affected generally by factors affecting securities markets, such as price and volume volatility in the capital markets, interest rates, currency exchange rates, changes in policies of the Government, taxation laws or any other appropriate authority policies and other political and economic developments which may have an adverse bearing on the individual securities, a specific sector or all sectors including equity and debt markets. There may be no prior intimation or prior indication given to the clients when the composition/ asset allocation pattern changes.
- vii. Trading volumes, settlement periods and transfer procedures may restrict the liquidity of the investments made by the Portfolio. Different segments of the Indian financial markets have different settlement periods and such periods may be extended significantly by unforeseen circumstances. The inability of the Portfolio to make intended securities purchases due to settlement problems could cause the Portfolio to miss certain investment opportunities. By the same rationale, the inability to sell securities held in the portfolio due to the absence of a well developed and liquid secondary market for debt securities would result, at times, in potential losses to the Portfolio which may result in decline in the value of securities held in the Portfolio.

- viii. The Portfolio Manager may, considering the overall level of risk of the portfolio, invest in lower rated securities offering higher yields. This may increase the risk of the portfolio. Such investments shall be subject to the scope of investments as laid down in the Agreement.
- ix. Securities, which are not quoted on the stock exchanges, are inherently illiquid in nature and carry a larger amount of liquidity risk, in comparison to securities that are listed on the exchanges or offer other exit options to the investor, including a put option. This may increase the risk of the portfolio. Such investments shall be subject to the scope of investments as laid down in the Agreement.
- x. While securities that are listed on the stock exchange carry lower liquidity risk, the ability to sell these investments is limited by the overall trading volume on the stock exchanges. Money market securities & fixed income securities lack a well-developed secondary market, which may restrict the selling ability of the Portfolio and may lead to the investment incurring losses till the security is finally sold.
- xi. Interest Rate Risk: As with all debt securities, changes in interest rates may affect valuation of the Portfolios, as the prices of securities generally increase as interest rates decline and generally decrease as interest rate rise. Prices of long term securities generally fluctuate more in response to interest rate changes than prices of short term securities. Indian debt markets can be volatile leading to the possibility of price movements up or down in fixed income securities and thereby to possible movements in the valuations of Portfolios.
- xii. Liquidity or Marketability Risk: This refers to ease with which a security can be sold at or near to its valuation yield-to-maturity (YTM). The primary measure of liquidity risk is the spread between the bid price and the offer price quoted by a dealer. Liquidity risk is today characteristic of the Indian fixed income market.
- xiii. Credit Risk: Credit risk or default risk refers to the risk that an issuer of a fixed income security may default (i.e., will be unable to make timely principal and interest payments on the security or honor its contractual obligations). Because of this risk corporate debentures are sold at higher yield above those offered on Government Securities which are sovereign obligations and free of credit risk. Normally, the value of a fixed income security will fluctuate depending upon the changes in the perceived level of credit risk as well as any actual event of default. The greater the credit risk, the greater the yield required for someone to be compensated for the increased risk.
- xiv. Reinvestment Risk: Investments in fixed income securities may carry reinvestment risk as interest rates prevailing on the interest or maturity due dates may differ from the original coupon of the bond. Consequently, the proceeds may get invested at a lower rate.
- xv. The Portfolio Manager may change the Fund Manager in the interest of the product(s) at any time without any reason assigning to it and / or without any information to the investors.
- xvi. The Employee of the Portfolio Manager may also subscribe to any of the product(s) offered by the Portfolio Manager.
- xvii. Investment decisions made by the Portfolio Manager are subject to the risks arising from the investment objective, investment strategy and asset allocation.
- xviii. Non Diversification Risk: This risk arises when the Portfolio is not sufficiently diversified by investing in a wide variety of instruments, The Portfolio Manager will attempt to maintain a diversified Portfolio in order to minimize this risk.
- xix. The Portfolio Managers have no previous experience or track record.

C. Tax Implications to Investors

The intent of the client at the time of the agreement in terms of the portfolio management style could determine the character of the investment portfolio. For example, depending on the business profile of the client, the portfolio gain could be treated as 'business gain' rather than 'capital gains' and tax treatment in such cases would be different than that applicable in taxation of normal capital gains.

D. Tax Implications where Transaction in Securities are in the nature of Investments

The listed equity portfolio gains in an account will be in the nature of capital gains, either short-term or long-term depending upon the holding period.

E. Short-Term Capital Gains

Any capital gains earned on investments undertaken in such Mutual Fund on or after 1 April 2023, shall be considered as short-term capital gains and added to the investor's income and taxed at the applicable income tax slab rates (plus any applicable surcharge and cess), regardless of the investment holding period.

Further, Finance Act 2024, with effect from 01.04.2025 has amended the meaning of Specified Mutual Fund u/s 50AA of the Income-tax Act, 1961. In case of buyback of shares, the sum paid by a domestic company for purchase of its own shares will be treated as dividend in the hands of shareholders, who received payment from such buy- back of shares and shall be charged to income-tax at applicable rates. No deduction for expenses will be available against such dividend income while determining the income from other sources. The cost of acquisition of the shares which have been bought back would generate a capital loss in the hands of the shareholder as these assets have been extinguished. Such capital loss can be adjusted against any other capital gains or carried forward to subsequent years for set off.

F. Long Term Capital Gains

The Finance Act, 2018 has terminated the exemption granted under section 10(38) of the Act to long term capital gain arising on transfer of units of equity oriented mutual funds or units of business trusts by introduction of section 112A in the Act.

- Dividend/Income received on such securities or units received or receivable is exempt from tax then the capital loss arising on account of purchase and sale of such securities to the extents of dividend/income received/receivable would not be available for set off against capital gains. Tax treatment in case of purchase or sale of units of Mutual Fund u/s. 94(8) of the act is on similar lines. In case of units of mutual funds
 - Purchased by any person within three months prior to the record date;
 - Such person is allotted additional units without any payment (on the basis of holding of such units on such date);
 - and such person sells all or any of the units within nine months after the record date while continuing to hold all or any of the additional units; then the loss arising on transfer of such purchased units shall be ignored for the purpose of computing the income chargeable to tax, unlike Section 94(7) wherein the loss ignored is to the extent of the dividend/income received/receivable. However, the loss so ignored shall be treated as cost of acquisition of such additional units allotted.
- Footnote 1: Threshold is proposed to be increased to Rs. 10,000 w.e.f. 01.04.2025.
